OUR heritage

FOUNDED IN 1867

William Inglis and Son is Australia's largest and oldest bloodstock auctioneer. The business was founded by William Inglis in 1867 and is still owned by the Inglis family. William Inglis and Son was acknowledged as a prominent auction firm, most notably for its "world famous Sydney Yearling Sales", held at its Newmarket facility at Randwick. In 2015 William Inglis and Son sold its premises at Randwick, moving their operations to a larger site at Warwick Farm. In 2018 The William Inglis Hotel & Riverside Stables Precinct opened.

The William Inglis Hotel reflects this rich history throughout the hotel incorporating historical horse names showcased at the entry of all accommodation rooms along with The Chiltern Rooftop Pool and The Newmarket Room Restaurant paying homage. The 1867 Lounge Bar significantly reflects the year of when William Inglis was founded. It has been architecturally designed to represent the Inglis story.
